Project Overview:

Project Name: OderGo – Food Ordering MERN App

Project Description:

OrderOnTheGo is a full-stack food ordering platform built using the MERN stack (MongoDB, Express.js, React.js, Node.js). It allows users to browse restaurants, view menus, filter food items, add dishes to a cart, and place orders seamlessly. The platform includes secure user authentication, a responsive UI for users and admins, and real-time data interactions. Admins can manage menu items, monitor orders, and oversee user activities through a dedicated dashboard.

This application aims to provide a smooth, efficient, and user-friendly food ordering experience while enabling restaurants to manage their digital presence effectively.
